

LARRY PAINTER STOCK DOG CLINIC
June 1-5, 2022 – 5 days, Wednesday to Sunday
Robertsville, Missouri

Larry Painter and his family run a working ranch near Cleveland, Missouri. He has owned, bred, and trained Australian Kelpies and Australian Cattle Dogs for decades and uses his dogs regularly for stock work at home. He is a seasoned trial competitor in AHBA, ASCA, AKC, and USBCHA, and has won the ACDCA National Herding Championship six times. Larry is highly respected throughout the herding community and is widely sought-after as a clinician. He has worked extensively with all herding breeds during his many years of conducting clinics across the US, Europe, Canada, and Australia. Larry has a patient teaching style and is very effective at helping all levels of handlers and dogs fine-tune their herding skills, whether a beginner just starting out in the round pen or an advanced team working in a large open field. This clinic is open to ALL LEVELS of dogs/handlers.
